THE MINISTER SPEAKS TO BOARD OF REGENTS

ON THE GENERAL RELIGIOUS ATMOSPHERE OF THE HOME

How does one measure or interpret the religious atmosphere of a community? What are the measuring sticks? What are the criteria?

One has to be careful in using external tangible tools to evaluate what is so very personal and intangible as "religious atmosphere." We are tempted to bring in figures, to count noses, and to outline "Programs" which relate to the religious atmosphere but which are nothing more than the frame in which it is set.

Religious atmosphere is something that is "felt" or "sensed" and even here there is room for error. One cannot base his judgment by a sampling of a religious service or by an inspecting of building or equipment, or even by an interview with a member of the congregation. All of these help, but at the same time, all can be misleading. Even a report from the minister, who has an inside view, must necessarily be subjective, however objective he may try to be.

If religious atmosphere can be described with any degree of satisfaction, it must be in terms of the general response of the community to the claims of the Gospel. In my judgment, the response is good; not extra-ordinary, not less than average, but better than average, and perhaps better than one would expect in an institutional framework where Church attendance and regular religious activities are on a group basis. For example:

1. Response at worship services and to the preaching of the Word seems to be good. The congregation, though captive, is not indifferent. Worship seems to be genuine. The minister has considerable encouragement from the attentiveness and participation by the group.

2. In the cottages, children take part in regular devotions led by cottage mothers from three to five times a week. Family devotions are difficult to maintain, and it is even more difficult to keep regular devotional exercises from becoming mechanical and simply a matter of form. I think that the response of our children in this religious endeavor is average.

3. There are occasions when an external stimulus reveals wholesome and advanced religious development, as when our Senior High group, inspired by a missionary rally returned home to raise money for an extra contribution to world missions by washing cars on a Saturday afternoon. Nineteen students washed 22 cars and raised thirty-three dollars.

All in all, I believe that most of our students could give a good account of themselves in an examination on "Experimental Religion."

ON THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE HOME AND THE CHURCH

When a Church is situated on the grounds of an institution, and when the Church building and manse is the property of a Synod, and when that Church exists primarily, but not exclusively for the benefit of the religious growth and nurture of children who have been deprived of a normal church and home relation, it is imperative that the Church and the Institution work together as under the same yoke. Jesus once said, "Come to me, all whose work is hard, whose load is heavy; and I will give you relief. Bend your necks to my yoke, and learn from me, . . . for my yoke is good to bear, and my load is light." (Mt. 11:28NEB) When the institution, in this case the Barium Springs Home For Children, and the Church, which is Little Joe's, are joined under the yoke of Him who said "Let the little children come unto me," and who is the great Head of the Church, then truly the yoke is good to bear, and the burden is light. In such a relationship, the Church and the Home are co-laborers. Specifically,

1. The relationship between the Minister and the Superintendent leaves nothing to be desired. Communications are frank, frequent, and friendly. The channel for communication is always open, and it is a two way street.

The Minister has made no request which has not received fullest consideration and prompt attention by the Superintendent. The Superintendent has a sympathetic eye to the needs of the Church and has been anxious to supply such things as additional hymn books, films, film-strips, library books, motion picture equipment and other items, major and minor that have aided in worship and religious instruction.

Permission has been quickly given with reference to students attending special religious services and activities off campus when the minister has requested it.

Cooperation in securing a Director of Youth Work resulted in the employment of Miss Rosemary Rector last Fall. The financial obligation of the Church in this enterprise is only token, but the Director is under the supervision of the Session and carries out her work under the direction of the minister.

Major endeavors of mutual concern to Home and Church, such as Christian Education, Evangelism, and Christian conduct are undertaken "hand-in-glove" by the Minister and the Superintendent.

2. The relationship between the Session of Little Joe's Church and the Administration of the Home, in like manner, leaves nothing to be desired. Time and again, the

Julius Kinard Receives B. A. Degree

After 20,000 miles of driving to night classes and summer sessions at Mankato State college, Major Julius J. Kinard, a Barium graduate of 1937, professor of air science at St. Olaf College received the college degree he began studying for in 1937.

Major Kinard received a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and history at commencement exercises July 18. He began college at Lenoir Rhyne college in North Carolina, but his Air Force career never allowed him to stay in one place long enough to accumulate the necessary residence credits for graduation.

Courses at University of Maryland, University of California and Heidleberg university in Germany added up to more than enough credits for a degree, but didn't satisfy graduation requirements of any one school.

Beginning in March, 1960, Major Kinard drove from Northfield to Mankato several times each week for night classes to earn the necessary 45 residence credits, and completed his work this summer. He has been assigned to the St. Olaf Air Force ROTC detachment since September, 1959, and was named commandant of the unit in June, 1961.

NORTH COTTAGE

Hi Folks,

The summer here at Barium has really been an enjoyable one for all of us. Everyone had a wonderful vacation, but were glad to see their friends and get back into the same old routine again.

We have had all kinds of recreation this summer such as swimming, tennis matches, baseball games, hikes for the little kids, and parties for the older ones. Without a doubt everyone has enjoyed our new swimming pool most of all.

Tuesday night we had a cool softball game between the older boys and the men of the staff. Naturally, the boys won, but Mr. Glenn Steele really gave them a scare when he knocked a home run which brought the final score to a close 13 to 5.

It won't be long until school starts again and for our four seniors, Patsy Ross, Patsy Porter, Pamela Fair, and Wilma Bush, it will be the last time. We will be looking forward to seeing all of our old friends on August 13, and that, of course, is Homecoming. See you next month.

Delores and Bobby McMannen and little son, Ross were visitors on the campus. They have just returned from a visit to Archie in Florida.

David Thomas and his family have moved to Charlotte. David is working with the Eastern Air Lines. David has a 10 months old son, David, Jr. David made a visit to Barium recently.

Bill and Margaret Everett and their four sons visited Barium recently. Bill is working as an electronic technician at Cape Canaveral and they live at Cocoa, Florida.

William M. Ayers made a short visit to Barium recently. He is a linotype operator and lives at 20 Lothrop St. Beverly, Mass.

Phoebe (Cochran) and Delbert Griffin and their two boys, Bert and Michael made a short visit to Barium. They were on their way to New York for a vacation. They live in Brunswick, Georgia.

Ernest Stricklin and his family have moved from Hazard, Ky. where Ernest has been Minister at the Presbyterian Church to Worchester, Mass. Ernest is doing graduate work at Boston University and serving Park Avenue Presbyterian Church in Worchester.

George T. Faison has moved from Jonesboro, Ark. to Associate pastor of the First Church in Midland, Texas.

A letter from Virginia Baucom Easton of Wilmington gave information of her family. They have two sons, David age three and Kenneth age one year. Lillian was married December 23 and is living in South Carolina. She married Danny White, Jr. who is in the Navy, stationed at Charleston, S. C. Virginia's husband, Billy, has a Construction Company.

Major Julius Kinard was awarded an A.B. degree in Political Science and History, July 18 at St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota. He is Commandant of St. Olaf Air Force ROTC.

Paul Barnes is Life Guard at the Country Club pool this summer and Elsie is working in a Doctor's office. They bought a home in High Point recently. Paul teaches and coaches at Allen Jay High School in High Point.

Franklin Lentz was married July 29th at six-thirty in the evening at the Highland Presbyterian Church in Gainesville, Florida to Nola Louise Hamilton.

Charles Smith will be Assistant Professor of French and Spanish at St. Andrews College this fall.

STRICKLIN RESIGNS PASTORATE

(The following news story about Ernest Stricklin, a Barium boy, appeared recently in the Hazard Herald of Hazard, Ky.)

The Rev. Mr. Ernest Stricklin, Pastor of The First Presbyterian Church of Hazard for the past six years, will leave Hazard June 30 to enroll in the Graduate School of Theology of Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts to study for a Th. E. Degree in Christian Family Life.

During his ministry in Hazard, The Fellowship Hall, New Organ, and Bell Carrillon, a remodeling of the entire Church Edifice inside, and the Steinway piano were added to the plant. Other additions included new hymnals, kitchen equipment, pastor's study, conference room, an electric mimeographer, and a new heating plant.

An effective youth program with the Presbyterian Guidance Program and leadership training were instituted along with Laboratory Training for each department in the Church School. A Bible Study emphasis was begun in the Women of the Church through trained leadership. Five additional church school classes were organized. $310,000.00 were contributed to the total cause of the Church which included contributions to the new Presbyterian Church at London, the consolidated Presbyterian Church at Shoulderblade, and the proposed new church at Haymond. 150 new members were added to the church membership.

While in Hazard, Mr. Stricklin served as a Commissioner to the 98th General Assembly, Trustee of Lees College, Youth Advisor of Guerrant Presbytery, Stated Clerk of Presbytery along with being Chairman of World Missions and Annuities and Relief, Chairman of the Examinations of Ministers in Experimental Religion, Treasurer of Presbytery, Nominating Committee of Synod, Vice-president of Lions Club and Program Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer of Booster's Club, President of Community Church Kindergarten, President of Ministerial Association, President of Perry County Council of Religious Education, coached Broadway Football Team for three years, and organized a Marriage Counseling Clinic in the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Stricklin wrote, under the direction of the Perry Council of Religious Education, the curriculum used in the Bible teaching program and taught the course two years.

The Stricklins have two daughters, Rebecca Ellen and Martha Elizabeth. They will live in Worcester, Mass. while Mr. Stricklin is studying at Boston University.

UNDER THE STEEPLE

By Rev. Hugh B. Carter, Jr.

"Five Hundred Criminal Careers" is the heading of a paragraph that attracted my eye. Some thirty years ago, a study was made in Massachusetts of the lives of 500 men who had "graduated" from the Concord Reformatory. The resources and reasearch facilities of Harvard University were employed in this scientific study of each of the men.

The work was sympathetically and thoroughly done. The lives of the young men were looked at as through a microscope—before they were arrested, afterwards, before they were sent to the "Correctional Institution" and after, during parole and after. They were seen in their relationships to family, friends, community, school, church, and employment.

Results: It was learned that only 12 of every hundred men showed indication of reform. For every 12 there were 88 who continued in their life of crime. There are two lessons to be learned from these results: 1) That what has been FORMING for 15 years cannot be RE-FORMED in 15 months (average length of term at Reform School), and 2) That crime may be preventable, but it is not very curable.

This same article went on to point out that in 1935 another study was made in Massachusetts which intended to prove that Social, Religious, Health and Welfare forces in a community could wipe out crime —or at least reduce it considerably. 325 delinquents called "the favored" were paired off against 325 other delinquents. The Favored group were worked on by the forces of health, religion, welfare etc. and the others were left to go their own way.

Results: No significant difference in the way the Favored Group turned out over those who were left alone. Lesson: It takes more than the combined forces of Society, Health, Religion and Welfare to UNDO what has been DONE. Or again, crime may be preventable, but it is awfully hard to cure.

Barium Springs, which is the hand of the Church outstretched to children who have been unable to enjoy the benefits of private family life, offers boys and girls the faith and hope and love that leads to wholesome living and good citizenship. Here, something is added to the Social and Religious, Health and Welfare forces that are forever at work against crime and degeneracy. It is the love of Jesus Christ for children expressed through the loving hands and hearts of the people throughout the Synod of North Carolina. His love not only redeems the lost, but it strengthens that which is noblest and strongest in the lives of His little ones.

No study has been made, that I know of, that would tell us what happens to our graduates. But I think it could be proven, if I may borrow the words of the friend who supplied the above data on Studies In Crime,—I think that it could be proven in a scientific study that ". . . substitute homes manned by good persons—Institutions manned from cook to superintendent by people of common sense and devotion—can direct the ways and attitudes of children toward good citizenship and sane living."

Such an institution is Barium Springs—from cook to superintendent. It bears all the frailties of flesh and spirit that belong to the race. But it is the redemptive arm of Christ in our midst—and in our world—to seek and to save what is lost.

Session, while not forgetting its responsibility to the off campus community, has shown that its primary responsibility is for the Christian nurture of the children who live at the front door of the Church. There is a genuine interest in and knowledge of the students by the Session, and there has existed a friendly spirit of cooperation between the Session and the Administration in all matters.

THERE ARE THREE AREAS OF PARTICULAR CONCERN TO THE MINISTER

There are three areas of primary and continual concern:

1. Getting boys and girls to see and act upon the relation of faith to life. This has to do with behavior and with attitudes. Outwardly, we have the proper setting for cultivating the faith, and we have the proper organization, and we go through the proper motions; the danger always is that we will preserve the outward form of religion while our actions and attitudes deny its reality. We must keep Church from being a perfunctory obligation, and worship from being a mechanical procedure. We must insure that our Junior Officers in the Church see their office not so much as an honor to themselves as an opportunity for honoring Christ and His Church.

2. Giving our boys and girls a Christian Education that is rooted and grounded in the knowledge of the Scriptures, and preparing them for a meaningful and sincere profession of faith in Jesus Christ.

3. Securing adult off-campus leadership in the Church School, in the Senior High and Pioneer Fellowships, and for the higher offices in the Church.

4. Sending children to the communities where they will find themselves after graduation with such a devotion to Christ and His Church that they will identify themselves with the Christian Community without undue delay, cherishing their opportunity for service and obedience to Christ in all the days to come.

Concluding statement:

It is a unique privilege to be the minister at Little Joe's Church. As the end of my third year in this pastorate draw to a close, I must say, "The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places."

SANFORD NEWS

Dear Friends,

As vacation has come and gone, we are beginning to get ready for this school year.

Since you have heard from us last, we had two new members come to our Cottage—Patty Williams and Linda Louise Utsman. Patty, an eighth grader, came from Chadbourn, North Carolina. Linda Louise moved from another cottage.

Since vacation our house has been painted and we have received some new furniture, which we have enjoyed very much.

Homecoming is August 13, and we surely are looking forward to seeing old friends and family members who have graduated and gone off to college or nurses' training.

During this hot weather, the new swimming pool has really been appreciated.

We all had a wonderful vacation and hope that wherever you may go, yours will be just as happy.

Until next month we say goodbye.

LOTTIE WALKER BOYS

Hi Everyone,

We all had a good time on vacation and hope you did or will have a nice vacation. Some of us went to the mountains and beach on our vacation while others stayed at home. However we are all glad to be back.

Most of us are looking forward to school. We have two boys who will be freshmen in high school. All of our boys except four will go to Troutman School.

Percy Utsman had a birthday July 17. He was thirteen. Charles Smith, Charles Harris, and Angus Medlin have a birthday in August. Charles Smith will be twelve on August 6, Angus Medlin will be twelve on August 16, and Charles Harris will be ten on August 21.

We are all enjoying our swimming pool. All of our boys can swim except Mark and George.

George Harris broke his arm on vacation. He fell off a pony and the pony stepped on it.

Percy Utsman got a bicycle for his birthday. Most of the boys enjoy riding it.
